

I led the full design process from concept to production handoff, managing everything except color selection. This included functional and industrial design, plus close coordination with sample rooms and manufacturers.