Subject line: Get constructive feedback on your writing

Hey Sarah,

Have you ever been part of those forums where you submit your writing for feedback and wait? And then you wait more until you give up.

Our IdeaSpark community is nothing like that.

Here you can get feedback within 48 hours. Sometimes even sooner.

Because we know how much your writing matters to you.

No need to worry about useless trolls. IdeaSpark has a healthy community monitored personally by me.

You will only get constructive criticism from our community.

So what are you waiting for? Join IdeaSpark, write your first piece and submit it for feedback.

But you need to act fast because we're closing our doors soon.

To your success.
