Let's have a proper brew

Our family business started blending tea in Yorkshire over 125 years ago. We buy teas from the top gardens and estates in East Africa and Asia, putting the best quality into our tea bags so that you get the best flavour out.

The English are a nation of tea drinkers and that's particularly true of Yorkshire. Famous for its rolling countryside and charming tearooms, it's a place where they won't settle for anything less than a really satisfying proper brew.

We trade with a conscience, visiting our suppliers regularly to build long-lasting partnerships, doing business in a way that respects people and planet.
