About Me

Creative and commercially driven Fashion Designer with over 6 years of experience in developing womenswear, menswear, and childrenswear collections for leading European fast fashion brands. Experienced in both garment design and graphic & print design, with a strong understanding of the complete product development process—from trend research, concept creation, and collection planning to artwork development, sample reviews, and production follow-up.

Throughout my career at Ulupinar Textile, I have collaborated on collections for international brands including Pull&Bear and Bershka (Inditex), Reserved, Mohito, Sinsay, and House (LPP Group), as well as Bréal, Bonobo, Cache Cache, and Morgan (Groupe Beaumanoir). I am passionate about translating global fashion trends into commercially successful products, combining creativity with a strong awareness of market needs, brand identity, and customer expectations. Adaptable, detail-oriented, and highly organized, I thrive in fast-paced environments where collaboration, innovation, and continuous learning drive successful collection
