

Religion vs Spirituality

Religion is believing in someone else's experience. Spirituality is having your own experience.

Creation in its purest form is a purposeful, problem-solving, universal design. Our individual creative processes-- our own purposeful designs-- are a time capsule of our present knowledge, interpretations, and beliefs.

Through the individual creative process, we can experience validation of our purposeful existence, an energy that has the potential to transport the soul to higher dimensions. And closer to the Creator Consciousness...

The Creator Consciousness exists as the environment of potential that allows each Galaxy to develop a unique set of genetic predispositions, so that diversity is amplified across the universe, which in turn enables the Creator Consciousness' potential to experience the broadest continuum of Life and Creation, in all of its dimensions.

Constant discovery, evidenced in the sheer intricacies of ever-evolving scientific revelations on the vast micro and macro-scope of the universe, and our eternal obsession to fully understand its Mysteries.

THIS MAY BE THE ONLY PURPOSE FOR ALL EXISTENCE...
