

U.S. QUANTUM TUNNELING SPACECRAFT INTERSTELLAR FLEET

We have a Space Force and U.S Deep Quantum Tunneling Spacecraft fleet. There is a USS Curtis LeMay, a big, huge Starship. It does is named after four-star General Lemay, who was U.S Air Force staff from 1961 to 1965. The USS Lemay has been crewed in outer space since 2003 and has been to 28 different catalog solar systems in our small arm of the Milky Way galaxy.

There is also the USS Hoyt Vandenberg, who was U.S Air Force Chief of Staff in the Harry Truman Administration and appointed to MJ-12 that secretly studied UFOs and ETS beginning in 1947. And the USS Roscoe Hillenkoetter, who was the first CIA director from 1947 to 1950 appointed by President Harry Truman.

The USS Curtis LeMay was built to explore Earth's Interstellar neighborhood since 2003. Capable of Deep Quantum Tunneling Protocol also known as DQTP which is using a type of Alcubierre warp drive to move point to point in this universe. JSOC the Joint Special Operations Command of the United States government are the elite, Tier-1 units that most American taxpayers know nothing about. They serve as U.S. Off-World soldier explorers.

There are ongoing Wars between extraterrestrial species, and it comes down to humans on Earth being somewhat protected by two groups. They want to see us humans make it and join the celestial neighborhood. The Nordics do most of the policing and are more of a military type of group that provides a type of security over our deep space exploration and travel.

The Tall Whites are much more hands-on and help us with understanding the technology it takes to achieve deep space exploration both groups of Tall Whites and Nordics are always working on every one of the American deep space force craft at all times to protect their evolving human offspring that for centuries have never been told the truth about their Cosmic families.

That acknowledgment by people in the government and military that there are cosmic families that are trying to protect us and we are still in a world that all of the political power is self-serving.

We humans are truly a blended bunch of extraterrestrial genetic offspring. Earth humans are a product of an experiment that was set up here on Earth at least 278 million years ago. Extraterrestrial biological entities manipulated DNA and already evolving primates to create Homo Sapien Sapiens. And advanced extraterrestrials civilizations have used this planet as a laboratory for 278 million years.

Human beings are remarkable; the culture comes from a militaristic and tribal background, and historically we don't trust each other. The original progenitor created Homo Sapien Sapiens from experimenting with standing up primates going back to Homo erectus. They have been studying us throughout all those two million years back to Homo erectus, and they have been creating different standing up primate models, and they know more about Homo Sapien Sapiens than we do. And they know exactly what is going on in our minds because they can read every thought of any human that they focus on.

A few of us have memories of ancient times that are related to extraterrestrial civilizations that our governments deny. We all want peace and protection, and I hope that desire will protect us now and forever. It is the thought that dwells in the light of discovery.

The Nordics and Tall Whites are true allies that have vested interest in the evolution and survival of Homo Sapien Sapiens because they made us.
