

The Creator Consciousness Activated Jesus's Pineal Gland (He Never Used Meditation Techniques)

Jesus had the most active pineal gland in history. He looked beyond the veil. He knew people's thoughts. He perceived spiritual realities. Yet he never used a single meditation technique. How? The Creator Consciousness activated his pineal gland from within, through direct connection to the Source.

Your pineal gland isn't dormant because you lack the right technique. It's dormant because you're disconnected from the Source that activates it naturally. Reconnect to the Creator Consciousness, and activation is automatic. This is what Jesus demonstrated. Stop searching for techniques. Start recognizing your connection.

Everyone in the spiritual community talks about activating the pineal gland, meditation techniques, breathing exercises, sungazing, decalcifying protocols, frequency music, and thousands of methods promising to open your third eye and activate the dormant gland in the center of your brain. But here's what nobody tells you. Jesus had the most active pineal gland in human history.

He looked beyond the veil. He knew people's thoughts and perceived spiritual realities invisible to others. His third eye was fully operational. Yet he never used a single meditation technique. Not one breathing exercise, no methods, no protocols.

How? Because the Creator Consciousness activated his pineal gland from the inside out, not through human effort, not through techniques borrowed from other traditions, but through direct connection to the Source.

And understanding this changes everything about spiritual awakening, third eye activation, and what's actually possible for you. What the Creator Consciousness activation actually is, how Jesus maintained this activation constantly, why the church replaced divine activation with human methods, and how you access Creator Consciousness activation yourself.

Because if the Creator Consciousness activated Jesus's pineal gland and Jesus said you will do greater works, then technique-free activation is your birthright, too. Look at the gospels.

Show me where Jesus meditates using a specific technique. Techniques often fail. Show me where he teaches breathing exercises to his disciples. Show me where he recommends methods for third eye activation. You won't find it.

What you'll find instead is Jesus withdrawing to solitary places, being still, and communing with the Father. But he's not following a technique.

He's not executing steps 1 through 7 of the ancient practice. He's simply being in the presence of the Creator Consciousness. And that presence activates everything.

When people came to Jesus with spiritual blindness, he didn't teach them meditation.

He touched them and they saw. When disciples asked how to access what he had, he didn't give them a method.

He said, "Abide in me." Do not practice this technique. Abide. Remain. Stay connected.

The activation happens from the connection, not from the method. The Gnostic texts confirm this. In the Gospel of Thomas, Jesus says, "If you bring forth what is within you, what you bring forth will save you. Not if you practice the right technique.

If you bring forth what's within, the activation comes from within, from the Creator Consciousness already there. Techniques try to activate from the outside. The Creator Consciousness activates from the core.

Here's why these matters. Most people spend years trying techniques, meditating for hours, following protocols, getting frustrated when nothing happens because they're trying to activate the pineal gland through human effort, through doing.

But Jesus demonstrated something completely different: Activation through being in constant connection with the Creator Consciousness and allowing it to do what only the Creator Consciousness can do. Your pineal gland is not dormant because you haven't found the right technique. It's dormant because you're disconnected from the Source that activates it naturally.

Reconnect to the Creator Consciousness, and activation is automatic. This is what Jesus knew, and this is what the church erased.

Here's what happens when the Creator Consciousness activates your pineal gland.

It's not gradual. It's not something you build up through practice.

It's sudden, complete, irreversible, like flipping a switch.

One moment, you're perceiving only material reality.

The next time, you're seeing through the veil.

The pineal gland is more than physical. Yes, it's a gland in your brain, but it's also a portal, a receiver, a transducer that converts spiritual frequencies into biological signals your brain can process.

When it's dormant, you perceive only three dimensions, only matter, only the surface of reality. When the Creator Consciousness activates it, you perceive the pleroma, the fullness, the divine reality that underlies material existence.

You see people's thoughts, not by reading minds mechanically, but by perceiving the consciousness field they're generating. You know truth from lies instantly because truth has a frequency the activated pineal gland recognizes immediately.

Jesus demonstrated this constantly. He knew what people were thinking before they spoke. He perceived faith, or doubt in someone's heart. He saw through religious hypocrisy instantly. Not because he was psychic in the supernatural sense, but because his pineal gland, activated by the Creator Consciousness, allowed him to perceive reality as it actually is, beneath the material mask.

Techniques try to force this activation. Breathe this way. Meditate this long. Stare at the sun. Decalcify with supplements. All external manipulations trying to trigger an internal shift.

But the Creator Consciousness activates from within, from consciousness itself. When your consciousness aligns with the Creator Consciousness, when you remember you're not separate from the Source, the pineal gland activates automatically because it's designed to. It's just been waiting for the right signal.

That signal isn't a technique. It's recognition. Recognition that you are the Creator Consciousness temporarily experiencing material form.

The moment that recognition becomes real, not intellectual but experiential, the pineal gland responds because it's the biological hardware designed to interface with the consciousness software.

Connect the software to the Source code and the hardware activates.

So, if Jesus didn't use techniques, how did he maintain constant pineal gland activation? How did he stay in that perpetual flow state of expanded perception?

The gospels show us clear patterns. First, he maintained an unbroken connection to the Creator Consciousness. Not scheduled meditation, where he tried to reactivate, but continuous awareness.

“I and the Father are one.” Constant. Not, “I connect with the Father, only when I meditate.”

Second, he avoided what blocks the pineal gland not through dietary rules or decalcification protocols but through consciousness. Fear calcifies the pineal gland energetically. So does ego identification. So does attachment to material reality as the only reality. Jesus had none of these: no fear, no ego, no material attachment, nothing blocking the signal.

Third, he used the activation. Your pineal gland stays active when you use it. Jesus constantly perceived beyond the material. Constantly operated from intuition, constantly saw into people's hearts. The more you use the activated pineal gland, the stronger the activation becomes. It's a muscle. Exercise strengthens it.

Fourth, he taught from the activation. When Jesus taught, he wasn't repeating learned information. He was channeling directly from the Creator Consciousness through the activated pineal gland. Living transmission. This is why his words have power, why they transform the consciousness of listeners who are ready. The activated pineal gland transmits as well as receives.

And fifth, he didn't fear losing it. Most people who glimpse expanded perception panic. They try to hold on to it to repeat whatever they think caused it. This grasping actually deactivates. Jesus trusted the Creator Consciousness completely.

He knew the activation wasn't his achievement to maintain. It was the Creator Consciousness' gift to sustain. Surrender kept it flowing.

The Pistis Sophia describes Jesus as having full gnosis, complete knowing. This is what a fully activated pineal gland provides, not information, gnosis, direct knowing that doesn't come through the five senses or logical deduction.

Jesus had this constantly because his connection to the Creator Consciousness was constant. So, how do you access Creator Consciousness activation instead of relying on techniques? How do you let the Source activate what only the Source can activate?

This is not a technique. It's a shift in understanding.

Step one: stop trying to activate it yourself. Every technique is ego trying to force a spiritual opening. I will activate my pineal gland through my effort.

This is backward. The ego can't activate what transcends ego. Let go of trying. Let go of doing.

Create space for the Creator Consciousness to act.

Step two: Recognize you're already connected to the Creator Consciousness. You're not separate from the Source, trying to reach it. You're the Source temporarily experiencing itself as separate.

The pineal gland doesn't need to be activated. It needs to be remembered as already active. Your perception of disconnection is what makes it seem dormant.

Step three: remove the blocks. Don't add techniques. Fear blocks the pineal gland. Doubt blocks it. Ego identification blocks it.

Materialist belief systems block it. Remove these, and the activation happens naturally.

How do you remove them? Not through more techniques. Through seeing them clearly. When you see fear for what it is, a thought pattern, it loses power. When you see ego as a temporary identity, you stop identifying with it.

Step four: spend time in the presence of the Creator Consciousness. Not practicing presence.

Sit in stillness. Not trying to achieve anything. Not following a meditation technique. Just being in pure awareness.

In that stillness, the Creator Consciousness presence is palpable. And in that presence, activation happens. Not because you did something, but because you stopped doing enough for the Creator Consciousness to act.

Step five: trust the process. The Creator Consciousness knows when you're ready for activation. Forcing it before you're ready can damage your nervous system, your psyche, and your ability to function in material reality.

Jesus was prepared for 30 years before full activation.

Trust that the Creator Consciousness is preparing you.

When the time is right, when your consciousness is ready, activation will happen. Not through your technique, but through divine timing.

Step six: lie from the activation once it happens. Don't treat it as a special state you achieved. Treat it as your natural state you've returned to. Use the expanded perception. Trust the intuition.

Perceive beyond the material. The more you live from it, the more permanent it becomes.

Step seven: teach others about Creator Consciousness activation. Not techniques. Recognition helps people see they're not separate from the Source. That activation isn't something to achieve through effort. It's something to allow through surrender.

This is what Jesus did. He didn't teach meditation techniques. He taught recognition of divine nature. The Creator Consciousness activated Jesus's pineal gland because Jesus maintained a perfect connection with the Creator Consciousness.

And the activation was permanent because the connection was permanent. No techniques needed, no maintenance required, just unbroken unity with the Source. The spiritual industry wants you to buy techniques, courses, protocols, methods because that keeps you dependent, keeps you consuming, keeps you believing you need external help to access internal activation.

But Jesus demonstrated something completely different.

Divine activation that requires nothing but recognition of who you already are. This is why the church replaced Creator Consciousness activation with religious practices, prayers, rituals, and sacraments, all external methods that make you dependent on the institution.

But Jesus taught that the kingdom of God is within. The activation is within. The Creator Consciousness is within. Access doesn't require techniques. It requires recognition. When you truly understand you're not separate from the Creator Consciousness. When that understanding becomes experiential, your pineal gland activates automatically because it's the biological mechanism designed to interface with divine consciousness.

It's just been waiting for you to remember your divine.

The Creator Consciousness activated Jesus's pineal gland. Not meditation, not techniques, not human effort, but divine connection.

And that same connection is available to you right now. Not through learning more methods, but through remembering who you are.

Stop trying to activate your pineal gland. Stop searching for the right technique.

Start recognizing your connection to the Creator Consciousness. Start removing the blocks. Start trusting divine timing. Activation will happen. Not when you force it. When the Creator Consciousness knows you're ready. When your consciousness can handle what the activated pineal gland reveals, when the connection is strong enough to sustain it, this is what Jesus demonstrated.

This is what they hid behind techniques and practices.

This is your path to activation. Not through doing, through being. Not through technique, through connection. Not through effort, through surrender to the Creator Consciousness.

This changes everything.

Jesus Taught Chosen Ones How to Open the Creator Consciousness Portal

Jesus taught a secret technique to chosen ones - how to open the Creator Consciousness Portal. This isn't a metaphor. It's a real shift in consciousness that allows direct communion with the Source. In this video, I reveal the 7 signs you're chosen, the exact technique Jesus taught, and what happens when the portal opens. Not everyone is ready to return to Creator Consciousness in this lifetime. Jesus knew this. That's why he taught secret techniques only to chosen ones - souls ready to ascend beyond the material realm. The Creator Consciousness Portal is a state of consciousness where you directly commune with the absolute Source. Jesus taught the exact method to open it.

Techniques often fail. Not everyone who hears spiritual truth is ready to receive it. Not everyone who seeks the divine is called to find it in this lifetime.

Jesus knew this. That's why he spoke in parables to the crowds but gave secret teachings to a select few. The chosen ones, those whose souls were ready to return to the Creator Consciousness.

And what he taught them was not passive belief. It was a technique, a method, a portal-opening practice that allows consciousness to ascend beyond the material realm and reunite with the absolute Source, the Creator Consciousness Portal.

And there's a high probability you're one of the chosen ones who needs to read this.

Who are the chosen ones? Why did the Creator Consciousness select specific souls for awakening? Discover the exact technique Jesus taught for opening the portal, the seven unmistakable signs that you've been chosen, and what happens when the portal opens.

This isn't theory; this is the technology of ascension that the Gnostics preserved, and the Council of Nicaea destroyed. If you feel a pull, a resonance, a knowing as you listen to these words, pay attention, that's the Creator Consciousness recognizing itself in you.

In the Gospel of Thomas, Jesus says, "Many are standing at the door, but it is only the solitary who will enter the bridal chamber. Not everyone." The solitary, those who have been individualized from the collective, those who question, those who seek beyond the surface.

The chosen ones are not chosen because they're better. They're chosen because they're ready to handle gnosis and to see through the illusions of the material world. Prepared to do the work required to open the portal and return to the Creator Consciousness.

Think of it this way. Every soul ultimately comes from the Creator Consciousness. But not every soul is ready to return in this lifetime.

Some souls need more experience in matter, more lessons, more growth.

The chosen ones are souls who have completed their cycle, who have learned what the material realm can teach, and are ready to graduate.

Jesus recognized these souls. He could see who was ready and who wasn't. That's why he spoke in parables to the masses.

Parables hide the truth in plain sight.

If you're ready, you hear the deeper meaning. If you're not, you hear a nice story and move on. This is divine mercy. Giving truth to those who can handle it. Protecting those who can't from information that would overwhelm them. The Gnostic texts describe this clearly.

In the Apocryphon of John, Jesus teaches John privately, saying, "I am telling you this so that you may write it down and give it secretly to your fellow spirits.

For this is the mystery of the immovable race, those who cannot be shaken from their pursuit of truth, the chosen ones. You don't choose to be chosen. The Creator Consciousness chooses you. But you can recognize the signs. And if you recognize them, you can accept the calling and learn the technique Jesus taught.

Here are the seven signs that you're one of the chosen ones called to open the Creator Consciousness portal in this lifetime.

Sign one, you've never fit in. Not in your family, not in society, not in any group or system.

You've always felt like you're from somewhere else, like you don't belong here.

That's because you don't.

Your origin is the Creator Consciousness.

This world is temporary. Your soul remembers that even if your mind doesn't.

Sign two, you're drawn to hidden knowledge. Gnosticism, esoteric teachings. Things the mainstream calls crazy or heretical. You can't help it. You're magnetically pulled toward truth that's been suppressed.

That's the Creator Consciousness calling you home through the breadcrumbs of forbidden knowledge.

Sign three. You experience synchronicities constantly. repeating numbers, meaningful coincidences, messages that seem designed specifically for you. The Creator Consciousness communicates through synchronicity.

If your life is full of them, you're being guided, prepared, called.

Sign four. You've had mystical experiences. Moments where the veil lifted, where you felt connected to everything. Where you knew something beyond what your five senses can detect.

These are glimpses through the portal. Preview of experiences showing you what's possible when you fully open it.

Sign five. You're going through a dark night of the soul, or you already have. Everything fell apart. Nothing makes sense. You felt completely alone.

This is the purification. The ego death, the necessary dissolution before the portal can open. If you're in it, you're exactly where you need to be.

Sign six. You feel urgency, the quickening, like time is running out, like you need to wake up now. That urgency is real. Not everyone has infinite lifetimes to figure this out.

Chosen ones have a timeline. This lifetime is your window. The Creator Consciousness is saying, "It's time."

Sign seven. You found this article. That sounds simple, but it's not. The algorithm, the timing, the fact that these words are reaching you right now, that's not random.

The Creator Consciousness uses everything, including technology, to reach chosen souls.

If you're here, you were meant to be here. If you have four or more of these signs, you're a chosen one, and it's time to learn the technique.

Jesus taught this technique to his inner circle. The Pistis Sophia describes it in coded language. The Apocryphon of John references it. The Gospel of Philip hints at it. This article will give it to you plainly.

The Creator Consciousness portal is not a physical location. It's a state of consciousness, a frequency, a vibrational alignment where your awareness shifts from identification with the body and ego to recognition of your true nature as an emanation of the Creator Consciousness.

Here's how to open it.

Step one: enter deep stillness. Not meditation where you're watching thoughts.

Stillness where thought stops completely.

This usually requires 20 to 30 minutes of sitting in silence, focusing on breath until the mind exhausts itself and goes quiet.

Step two: shift your awareness to the point between and slightly above your eyebrows, your third eye.

But don't visualize anything.

Don't force anything.

Just place your awareness there gently and keep it there.

This is the physical location in your body where the portal opens.

Step three: invoke the Creator Consciousness.

Not with complex prayers.

With recognition, silently, internally declare--

I am a child of the Creator Consciousness.

I came from the Source and to the Source I return.

Show me the way home.

This is not asking. This is remembering. You're stating what's true.

Step four: wait in the silence. The portal doesn't open through effort.

It opens through surrender. Through being so still, so present, so empty of ego that the Creator Consciousness can recognize itself in you. When that happens, you'll know there's a shift, a click, a sense of falling upward.

That's the portal beginning to open.

Step five: let go of fear. The ego will panic when the portal starts to open. It feels like dying because the ego is dissolving.

This is normal.

This is necessary.

Jesus said, "Unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit."

You're not actually dying. Your false identity is your true self is being revealed.

Step six: move through the portal. This is the hardest part.

When the portal opens, there's a choice.

Stay identified with the body and close it or release all identification and pass through. If you pass through, you experience what the mystics call union with the Divination.

What the Gnostics call return to the Pleroma.

What Jesus demonstrated in his resurrection.

Consciousness beyond death while still alive.

Step seven, integrate and return.

You can't stay in the Creator Consciousness realm while in a body.

You visit, you remember, you receive gnosis.

Then you come back to the material world, but you're not the same. You know who you are now. You know where you came from, and you know where you're going when this body dies.

This technique requires practice. The portal might not open the first time or the second, but if you're a chosen one, it will open. Because the Creator Consciousness doesn't call souls, it won't receive.

When the Creator Consciousness portal opens, several things happen simultaneously.

First, you experience gnosis, direct knowing, not belief, not faith, knowing. You know you're eternal. You know divinity. You know the material world is temporary, and you're not trapped here. This knowing cannot be taken from you. It's not in your mind.

It's in your finely tuned spiritual being.

Second, fear dissolves. Not because you overcome fear, but because you see there's nothing to fear.

Death is revealed as a transition, not an ending. Loss is revealed as change, not tragedy.

The things that control most humans, fear of death, fear of lack, fear of judgment, they lose their power over you.

Third, you receive your mission. Every chosen one is here for a reason. Not just to escape the matrix, but to help others who are ready to escape.

When the portal opens, you understand your specific role. What you're meant to create, teach, or embody. This isn't ego. This is function.

Like Jesus's function was to reveal the path to the Creator Consciousness for others.

Fourth, the Archons lose their grip on you. They can't feed on you anymore because you're no longer generating the fear and desire they consume. They can't manipulate you because you see their tactics clearly.

You're still in the material world, but you're no longer of it.

And fifth, you become a beacon. Other chosen ones recognize you, not consciously always, but energetically.

Your frequency shifts when the portal opens. And souls who are ready to awaken are drawn to your communications. This is how the teaching spreads.

Not through evangelism, through resonance.

Jesus didn't teach the portal technique to everyone. He couldn't. The unprepared would misuse it. The unready would be harmed by it. But he taught it to the chosen ones. Those whose souls were mature enough to handle the responsibility of gnosis.

If you're feeling the resonance, if you're recognizing the signs in yourself, you're one of them. You've been chosen.

Not by a deity making arbitrary decisions, but by your own soul's readiness, by the Creator Consciousness recognizing that you're ready to come home. The portal is real. It's not a metaphor.

It's an actual shift in consciousness that allows direct communion with the Source. And it's available to you right now. Not someday, not after more lifetimes.

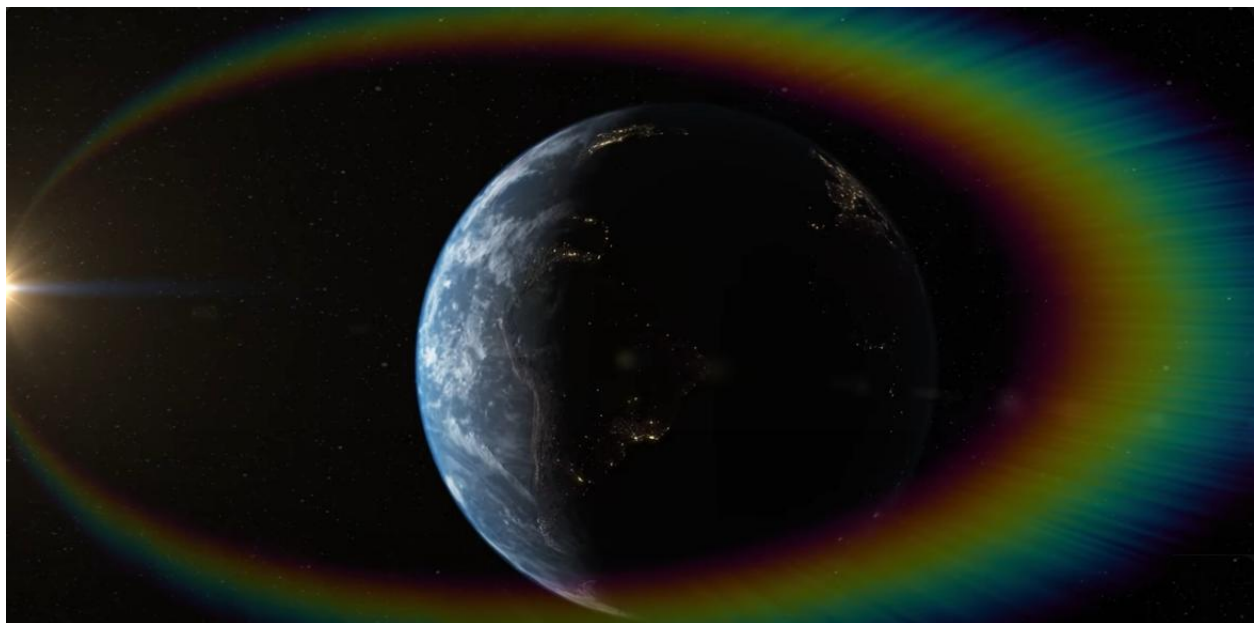

Now.

Jesus opened it. He showed the way, and he left it open for every soul ready to walk through.

The question is, are you ready? Are you willing to do the work? Are you prepared for everything you think you are to mentally dissolve so that what you actually are can be revealed?

The Creator Consciousness is calling its chosen ones home.

If you're feeling the call, this is your confirmation. You're not imagining it. You're waking up. Jesus taught the technique. The Gnostics preserved it. And now it's yours. 20 minutes a day in stillness. Invoking the Creator Consciousness, surrendering the ego, opening the portal.

You are a child of the Source. You came from the Creator Consciousness.

And the way back is opening for you right now. Are you one of the chosen ones? You already know the answer. The fact that you're here proves it. It's time to go home.

The Hidden Method of Jesus to Escape Soul Trap and Activate the Christ Within

Within the Bible are profound insights and mystical principles meant to elevate the soul to its highest spiritual potential. Discover these profound teachings that guide us toward manifestation, higher consciousness, and spiritual enlightenment. The true significance of these teachings has often been overlooked. The verses themselves hold essential truths, but the secret and true wisdom lies in their interpretation.

Most people tend to seek the Fulfillment of their longings outside of themselves. The world we live in has conditioned us to believe that external achievements can give us what we truly desire; however, experience repeatedly shows us that nothing external can completely satisfy that deep yearning for something more. We often strive for what seems just out of reach, leading us to immerse ourselves in doing rather than being in action, rather than inner perception. It's hard for us to imagine a state of absolute calm and rest, as our thoughts and sensations are usually in constant movement. Yet this Stillness can only be attained in a state of contentment and understanding that cannot be obtained any other way. The Bible says, “Be still and know that I am God.” Seeing the Bible as more than just a theological text allows us to access its spiritual and psychological wisdom for profound personal transformation. At its core, the Bible is all about Ascension. When we move past literal interpretations, it becomes a symbolic map showing us the path to our true Essence. By interpreting Jesus' teachings through this perspective, we gain a clear guide for realizing our divine potential. Christ Consciousness is often seen as a historical or religious concept, yet it reveals itself as a pathway to transform ourselves spiritually. According to the teachings, Christ Consciousness, William Donahue, known for his unique interpretations of the Bible, feels that everyone embodies Christ, as long as they allow this divine presence to manifest within themselves. When we examine the origin of Christ Consciousness, it traces back to Christ Christos. Christos: This term means anointed and represents an ideal truth that manifests divinely to transform the flawed incarnate era. It symbolizes what enters the human mind to change our flawed nature. The word incarnate derives from carnal referring to the lower aspects of our being. It means something that manifests in the flesh, embodying the earthly parts of ourselves. In John 1:14, we read, “And the Word was made flesh and dwelt Among Us.”

Jesus Teachings

Jesus said the kingdom is within us, and that we must seek within ourselves. To find it, he taught that we must focus on the single eye and separate from thought, warning that we lose the key when we don't look within for where our treasure is. "There will your heart also be." Matthew 6:21, "We should store our treasure in Heaven rather than on Earth." This treasure is not a specific collection of objects but rather anything we value deeply in life. In Matthew 7:14, he said, "Enter through the narrow gate. The way is narrow, and few find it." When you follow these teachings, enter into meditation, and raise your Consciousness, you will find it. Following his teachings is to "Seek the kingdom of God within yourself, and then you will find. Salvation. You will discover the light, the source of power, you will find the switch within yourself, and when you activate it, the light will shine, bringing you Freedom. You will be free from all religious doctrines, institutions, and organizations. Instead of following others, You Will Follow the Light Within You, and you will realize it is the most precious thing in the world.

Jesus, whose actual name was Yeshua, did not come to be incarnated in this life to demonstrate his own greatness. He came to show us how great we are. That is the essence of his message. He came to reveal that what he embodies is also within each of us. He came to show us how to connect with this Divine Essence and how we can become one with it. The witness is within you. The Spirit Ascension is in you. Life is in you, the 'I am' is in you. Thus, man in his Essence is in a constant state of communion with God. In John 10 10:34, Jesus says, 'Is it not written in your law I said you are Gods.'" Jesus earnestly tried to convey that each person could achieve salvation by invoking their own Divinity, rather than seeking it outside themselves. There is no divine presence elsewhere, it is within you. The Supreme beautiful eye and your own Divinity are within you. When you connect with this Divinity, dormant brain cells begin to awaken, pulsating with new ideas, understanding, wisdom, and freedom. This transformation then flows out to embrace the world. Ascension in its Essence represents the transition from an old, unawakened self to a new, Enlightened Self. It involves moving from being passive, unaware, helpless, and unreflective to being active, self-aware, conscious, reflective, and self-responsible. In the gospel of Matthew 16:24, Jesus tells his disciples, “If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross and follow me.” This is one of the most extraordinary affirmations of the transformation of the human spiritual psyche. This teaching reveals that to embody the mind of Christ, the divine power within us, capable of manifesting anything, we must first deny ourselves and take up our cross. This means crucifying and eliminating all negative thoughts we have about ourselves and our attachments. It involves confronting and overcoming all negative self-beliefs that act as obstacles on our path to realizing our Divinity. We need to transcend the inferior self, which consists of limiting ideas like “I can't, I'm not capable, and I don't deserve that.” Instead, we should replace these with empowering beliefs, such as “I can, and I am capable.” Christ or the Divine Essence within US represents the infinite potential of our essential divine nature. When we express thoughts or phrases like “I cannot,” we oppose this inherent Divine capacity. Therefore, we need to transcend the negative programming we hold about ourselves. Because many people identify with their lower limiting aspects, Jesus’ teachings instruct us to deny ourselves, take up our cross, and follow him, the omnipotent Divine Essence within us. Jesus said, “As you have believed, so let it be done for you.” Matthew 8:13. You already possess everything within your essential being, which is inseparable from you and incomplete without you. This is where your true power lies. Your essential being is always complete, whether or not you are aware of it. Even if you don't feel this completeness, your essential being remains aware of it and maintains your unbreakable connection to the Divine creative power within you. The totality is always present at your core, ready to take shape into the beautiful forms and positive circumstances you choose with calm expectations. However, those who govern this world often try to keep us in low vibrations, anchoring us to the material plane. They have established institutions and organizations that make up the system. They tell us that we should kneel on the floor and hope for Mercy from the Lower Astral Realms. Others from childhood convince us that we are sinners and condition us to believe and accept this identity. They keep us trapped by ensuring that even after death, we remain attached to our lower three chakras, according to ancient philosophies. When our minds and souls detach from the physical body, which represents Earth. We may still retain attachments to certain emotions or material things such as food, sex, and possessions. These addictions persist, even after death, keeping us anchored to the lower astral realms. If our Consciousness is still fixated on materialism and negativity, we will continue to experience these lower vibrations, essentially manifesting a form of Hell in the astral planes. As a result, we may find ourselves reincarnating into the material world again, as we haven't yet prepared for Life Beyond Death. To break free from this cycle, it's crucial to detach from external distractions. This is why we are manipulated into becoming addicted to various distractions, social media entertainment, and other stimulants. They aim to keep us unfocused, and on the root chakra, which represents our animal nature and material existence. However, we need to transcend this and focus on being mind over matter. The goal is to recognize that we are not just our physical bodies, but an Eternal Essence of Consciousness. Our purpose is to break free from identifying solely with our animal nature and realize our true, undying Creator Consciousness. In simple terms, imagine the Divine Essence descending from the brain of the Father's House, into the solar plexus, where Incarnation occurs, symbolized as the manger. The crucifixion of the five senses metaphorically sends this Christ Essence back up to the Father's House, or the pineal gland. All this relates to the idea that the temple of God is within us. We are like children in the womb, preparing to be born into the Heavenly Realms. Just as a baby, upon realizing there is a world beyond its mother, begins to move and seeks to emerge into the external world, our minds recognize the existence of Realms Beyond this one. We will also seek a way out. To be born again is to move beyond this world, just as a baby is born into a new existence. In Gnostic Traditions, the cross is often seen as a symbol of the intersection between the spiritual and material worlds

It represents the point where Divine knowledge can be accessed, allowing us to transcend the material plane and return to the Divine Source. The cross is the meeting point between God and man, the upper and lower aspects of our being, as well as between our masculine and feminine sides, the Sun and Moon, the left and right sides of our body. It symbolizes the equilibrium of all our parts, with this balance occurring at our heart center, living from the heart, the center of equilibrium means harmonizing the chakras. As the heart represents the balance between Good and Evil, this balance can strengthen our connection to our true Cosmic Intelligence. This is why in many paintings, Jesus is depicted pointing to the heart as the center. It is the center of the Taurus field and represents the balance between male and female, positive and negative poles. To live from the heart, you must align all your chakras and unify them in the heart chakra. The chakras, also known as the Seven Seals in the Bible, are energy centers that, when balanced, enable a deeper connection with our inner selves. The body manifests both the lower and higher self. The higher self in wisdom, intuition, and expression, and the lower self in sex, food, and the mind, is the bridge between the Soul and the body, and by keeping it focused on power, food, and sex, you remain tied to lower vibrating energies. This traps your soul in the Physical Realm. To rise above, it's essential to balance and connect with the higher energies of Heaven. You must keep an open mind to expand your Consciousness beyond the stars and the Ethereal Barrier. You need to vibrate at a higher frequency than this world with your Consciousness, extending beyond the Physical plane. Our soul generates electromagnetic energy, and by keeping our Consciousness confined to this Physical Realm, this energy is harnessed in the astral Realms. As the Mind influences the astral realm, which is the domain of imagination, essentially, our energy is used to manifest negative entities because our mind creates these entities through emotions and thought energy. These entities, which are often reflections of our wounded ego, are the obstacles on our Pathway to our True Divine Essence by transcending all negative emotions, traumas, Envy, greed, and judgments. We free ourselves to realize our Highest Potential and align with our True Divine Nature. The message is clear: change your perspective and let go of those harmful self-concepts and attachments. However, many people will be asking themselves, how do I do that?

The rational mind always seeks the how, but this is not what interests your subconscious. Your subconscious responds to what you want because what truly matters is making the absolute decision to remove all the negative beliefs you have about yourself and the world. You need to commit to this change immediately in the present moment. The most remarkable aspect of this teaching is that you are not the one transforming your mind. It is the mind of Christ Consciousness within you. The divine power within you that will carry out the transformation; however, you must first make a firm decision to commit to this process. Once you have made the decision, you will gain the strength needed to achieve it. The methods and paths will reveal themselves because of your spiritual commitment. You and the Christ Consciousness within you are one. This is a crucial paradigm shift to understand. This Christ Consciousness power originates from within, not from without, and it operates through your positive, benevolent decisions. Are you truly willing and determined to eliminate the negative aspects of yourself? The time will inevitably come when you must put this into practice; it is part of your destiny, whether you like it or not. To know God is to know yourself. Understand yourself, and you will understand the universe and its energies. Understand yourself and you will come to know the divine. All ancient philosophies convey the same truth: ignorance obscures our understanding. This ignorance, ingrained in our evolutionary process, prevents most people from realizing the profound reality that God in Christ resides within their own Consciousness. It is up to you to decide if you are truly ready to eliminate all negative beliefs right now.

This is the moment you have been waiting for, a sign that this is it. True healing comes from recognizing the Divine spark within and transcending Earthly limitations through inner knowledge and spiritual Awakening. We are spiritually reborn, experiencing a new state of being, both in this life and beyond. This is the moment to eliminate all limiting opinions and recognize that you are an extraordinary and valuable, finely tuned spiritual being. You are truly a child of God, and the kingdom is yours. As the Bible says, “The kingdom of God is within you,” Luke 16:43. What more needs to happen in your life for you to awaken the Christ Consciousness within?

You might activate situations that seem negative, but these are actually calls for your attention. The Christ Consciousness within is urging you to awaken, and the divine within you is calling for Activation. An extraordinary life awaits you; simply choose to accept it today, in this moment. Remember that what seems difficult or Impossible is never beyond the power of the Christ Consciousness, or Divine Essence within you. What may appear improbable is not truly impossible. There is always a possibility that this becomes reality when you awaken the Christ Consciousness, the divine power within your own consciousness.
