

ONE PLACE TO PARTY LIKE IT'S 2019

BY SAMIR KASLIWAL,
OWNER, GEM PALACE

"Mykonos is the new Ibiza. It has a more cosmopolitan crowd and better parties featuring performances by international DJs routinely. Its beaches turn into a party town after sunset. I like to spend Fridays at Alemagou, Saturdays at Branco, and Sundays at Scorpions, though my everyday favourite is Principote in Panormos. Branco is my latest discovery, where Saturdays see an amazing lineup of DJs like the Pachanga Boys. And Dragonisi is my big Greek secret—it's a little island next to Lia Beach that not too many tourists know of. Next up, I want to see the Ftelia beach area."

ONE FASHION BOUTIQUE WORTH TRAVELLING TO

BY ANAITA SHROFF ADAJANIA,
FASHION DIRECTOR, VOGUE INDIA

"2019 is not about that one destination to travel to in search of fashion, but about shopping at that one well-curated store wherever in the world you are. As we move from shopping streets to perfectly curated stores, the discerning fashion follower has a lot to choose from—for limited edition buys, visit L'Éclaireur in Paris; for cult brands, Opening Ceremony in New York; and for a one-stop-fashion shop, there's London's Dover Street Market. One of my personal favourites is Rare Market in Seoul, co-founded by two young girls, Dami Kwon and Jessica Jung. It's not just a K-Pop hotspot, the store is a treasure trove for the fashion-forward with brands from Korea and around the world."

Rare Market, Seoul

ONE INSTAGRAM-WORTHY HOTEL TO CHECK OUT

BY EVA CHEN, HEAD OF FASHION PARTNERSHIPS, INSTAGRAM

"My dream destination is Amangiri in Utah. My friend Kim Jones (of Dior Homme) posts about it frequently, and it looks absolutely stunning, serene, modern, and utterly luxurious.">

The ultra-luxurious Amangiri resort is located in the middle of a desert in Utah