

TOKYO OLYMPICS

DAY 16 OF 18

Competition takes world-class focus

Whether it was preparation or performance, precision was on display at the Olympics and demonstrated by (clockwise, from top left) Canada's Tim Nedow competing in the men's shot put; Latvia's Ieva Maluka swimming in the women's 200-meter freestyle; Egypt's Mohamed Hamza, left, and France's Enzo Lefort dueling in men's foil; Canada's Shallon Olsen tiptoeing on the balance beam and China's Fan Zhendong competing in table tennis singles.
