

BEIJING OLYMPICS

VIEWING GAMES AT FACE VALUE

Determination, curiosity and wonder have been on display through the first eight days of the Winter Olympics, from (top left) the view through frost covering a face shield of a volunteer before the start of the women's 15-kilometer skiathlon cross-country skiing competition in Zhangjiakou; Cene Prevc of Slovenia, as he prepared to jump during a men's ski jumping large hill training session; Zhu Yi of China, as she held on to her blade during the women's team free skate program; to Marte Olsbu Røiseland of Norway, as she calibrated her rifle before the start of the biathlon 15k individual race; and China's Qiu Leng, who wrote and displayed words of encouragement on her hands to a teammate during the women's halfpipe finals.

Associated Press photos

