

FINAL FOUR

NATIONAL SEMIFINALS

ENERGY, COLOR IN FULL BLOOM

Boldness and intensity were on display Friday at Target Center. Louisville's Olivia Cochran (top left) drove past South Carolina's Aliyah Boston; a tattoo on the leg of Louisville's Emily Engstler (top right) depicted her childhood court in New York; UConn's Aaliyah Edwards (middle) took a charge against Stanford's Cameron Brink; members of the Indigenous Athletics Advancement Council performed at halftime (left); and South Carolina's Laeticia Amihere (above) was called for a foul against Engstler.

Photos by CARLOS GONZALEZ, AARON LAVINSKY and ELIZABETH FLORES
Star Tribune