

The fair in a time of COVID-19

The dairy royalty, the family fun, the chowing down and the kissing were all happening at this year's fair, but pandemic prudence changed the look. Princess Kay of the Milky Way herself, Anna Euerle, and finalist Jessica Ohmann wore masks as they chatted in the Dairy Barn. Julieta Garcia, on the Giant Slide with her cousin Mia, said "I'm surprised and not surprised" that most people were not wearing masks. Some were defiant, like Bob Bushard of St. Paul, who only masked his eyes. For Faith Vang, of East St. Paul and Jayson Sanchez, of Richfield, affection shone through.
