Have you seen my son on the streets?

You can be the reason
he finds shelter tonight.

CSMMFOE

This is the note
from Nancy

Have you seen my son?
I haven't heard from him in years. I tried to get him help for his addiction, but it wasn't enough. I won't give up though. That's why I'm reaching out in case you
or others at Cherry Street might have seen him. I've heard you help men get clean, even after years of addiction. I just want to have my silly, happy,
fearless, loving son back.
I feel helpless. All I can do is pray that God
blesses him and keeps him
safe wherever he is.

Dear [Salutation],

You know the story Jesus told about a shepherd who left 99 sheep to search for the one that was lost?
At Cherry Street, every person is that "one" worth finding and bringing home.

Your support helps bring more lost souls home to the people who love them... to loving, worried mothers like Nancy.

She wrote to me about her son: "I feel helpless. All I can do is pray that God blesses him and keeps him safe wherever he is." Her words speak for so many other mothers I've met.

I hope you'll help rescue one more hurting neighbor from the street tonight. Your gift of [$AA.AA] provides meals, plus safe shelter and care, for [AA] people in need. [$BB.BB] will provide meals, plus safe shelter and care, for [BB] people and be the answer to a mother's prayer for her child.

Please give today to help those who are hurting and lost... find their way back home.

Grace and Peace,

Ann Ebbert

How your care and compassion

changed Charles's life...

“Growing up with abuse and addiction in my family, I started using as a kid, just to escape. My life became a cycle of loss, grief and homelessness... until I found Cherry Street. Being among others who struggled like I did was humbling. Here, I've learned compassion and built healthier relationships - with others and with God. It changed my life!” - Charles
