

April 2026

Dear [Salutation],

Your past support has given local children a life-changing summer experience at Camp CUMCITO. Thanks to you, hundreds of kids have had a place to be safe, to laugh, to grow in their faith... and simply be kids!

Kids discover who they are at camp.

For kids like Christopher and Christian, camp isn't just fun – it's deeply meaningful. The 10-year-old brothers have been attending Camp CUMCITO for the last two years, and each visit builds joy, friendships and faith.

Christopher sums up camp's impact in a few simple yet powerful words: "Camp makes kids happy."

For their mom, Ebony, camp means knowing her sons can experience the joy of summer in a Christ-centered setting – something that would be otherwise out of reach for a mom on a budget.

"They love Camp CUMCITO so much – from meeting new friends and bonding with camp counselors to all the activities. It is meaningful for me as a mom to be able to give them that childhood experience of summer camp in a Christian setting."

Camp raises spirits higher.

Your past generosity opened doors for so many kids – and your future gift can do it again. Because of friends like you, children like Christopher and Christian spend a week each summer on 600 acres in the Ozarks – a safe, uplifting place where happy memories are made and seeds of faith take root.

"Camp has helped my sons grow spiritually," Ebony says. "Through scripture-based teaching and worshiping through song, at camp they have another Christian community."

This local family's experience reflects the impact you make each summer... touching the lives of more than 150 boys and girls through Camp CUMCITO.

At camp, every day is a new adventure.

Many of the families City Union Mission serves – like Ebony’s – struggle to pay for necessities like utilities, rent and groceries, making camp feel out of reach. That’s why we turn to compassionate friends like you to assist in covering the cost, so families pay just a $25 registration fee per child, ages 5 through 16. It’s a way to bless local families when blessings seem few and far between.

*“What I love most about camp is swimming, church and the food,” says Christopher.
“I love playing games outside and the parade on the last day,” Christian adds.*

Your gift of $175 will sponsor one child for one day at Camp CUMCITO. A full week costs $875. That covers transportation to and from the city, a Bible for every camper, three meals a day (and healthy snacks), clean beds, arts and crafts supplies, safe sports and playground equipment, and, of course, the swimming pool!

For impoverished kids, daily life can be a “tug of war” – but at camp, the game builds a new team of friends.

Hundreds of children like Christopher and Christian are hoping to attend camp this summer – but they need your support to get there. And without your continued generosity, camp ceases to be within reach for kids like them. It truly depends on you.

I pray you’ll extend your Christ-like compassion to more kids who are facing hardship. You can give them a chance to experience carefree joy, faith and belonging at camp.

Camp CUMCITO creates these life-giving moments – but camp isn’t guaranteed. It continues only through the generosity of friends like you. Respond now with your gift to sponsor a day or week at camp to give vulnerable Kansas City children an unforgettable summer – one that lifts their spirits, strengthens their faith and changes their lives.

Thank you for believing that every young person deserves joy and a Christ-centered place to grow.

Blessings,

Gareth Keown, MSML
Chief Executive Officer
