

02

gasworld

Working within a team to design the monthly gasworld magazine, while liaising with printers to deliver products to the required specifications and deadlines.

Working closely with the Global Managing Editor, Sales Manager and Events Managers to effectively develop products that appeal to customers and maximise revenue generation.

Playing an active role in the development, design and production of event graphics, signage and related literature and company print directories.

