

TETRADIC/ DOUBLE COMPLEMENTARY:

- Tetrad combinations are made up of four hues equal distance from one another, forming a square or rectangle on the color wheel.
- The most varied of the color harmonies, however, if all hues are used in equal amounts it is hard to harmonize and can appear unbalanced.
- One color is often chosen to serve as the dominant color, subduing the others.

