WELCOME TO HIGH POINT

For the 41st year in a row, Mount Morris, PA greets the summer season with a rousing blend of horsepower and enthusiastic cheers when the Lucas Oil Pro Motocross Championship, sanctioned by AMA Pro Racing, roars into High Point Raceway. As round four of the 12-round, nationwide series, the Red Bull High Point National hosts the fastest riders in the world on one of the most historic tracks in motocross.

High Point Raceway has undergone a complete transformation in design, track flow and spectator viewing with more elevation changes, replacement of the starting line direction, enhancement of sponsor village and much more... There might not be a better venue to see the sport of motocross-literally-than High Point Raceway!

This track weaves its way around a deep valley, which leads to constant elevation change for the riders. From the slippery off-camber corners to the high-speed straights and the large triple jumps, no section of this track is completely flat, which makes it a true challenge for each rider. But what makes it tough for the athletes makes it great for the spectators, because several vantage points atop the valley offer views of 100 percent of the track. Further, High Point's jumps were engineered to sit right in front of the main spectator areas, letting fans get close while they watch the riders get some big air. Some call it moto theater—and it's a show filled with ups and downs, twists and turns.

Those views aren't wasted on the people, either, as High Point's fans are some of the most rabid in the sport. From the moment the gate drops the riders rush into the first turn, then dive downhill and into the off cambers, every spectator will have a taste of the challenges that lay ahead, and the atmosphere surrounding the entire weekend will be ecstatic. Whatever rider can master the hillsides of High Point will be rewarded not only with the overall trophy, but with huge support from the spectators who saw every inch of his winning run!

This year we celebrate 41 years of great racing memories at High Point. Better yet, we get to celebrate on Father's Day Weekend! So, bring your dad to the races for a run filled event unlike any other at one of the most famous motocross venues in the world! Be a part of the history at High Point Raceway.

HOW TO GET THERE:

- High Point Raceway is located in Mount Morris, PA, just a few miles north of Morgantown, WV.
- If you have a GPS, use the following address: 281 Taylortown Road, Mt. Morris, PA 15349
- Directions from Morgantown and points south: Take I-79 N to PA Exit 1 (Mt. Morris). Turn right (east) and follow for 3 miles to the gate.
- Directions from Washington and points north: Take I-79 S to PA Exit 1 (Mt. Morris). Turn left (east) and follow for 3 miles to the gate.

TRADITION

The Red Bull High Point National has been a summertime tradition for local race fans since enterprising motocross promoter, Dave Coombs Sr., found the perfect motocross track location in the early 1970s at the Holbert Family Farm in Mt. Morris, PA. After years of traveling around the country promoting different disciplines of motorcycle racing, Coombs knew there had to be an excellent location for what he envisioned to be a mecca for family fun, great racing, superb fan viewing and exciting sponsor interaction. Not only did he find the perfect spot for a Lucas Oil Pro Motocross National, he also found the perfect place to root the family business that would eventually grow into an international race production company and media house. Headquartered in Morgantown, MX Sports produces the entire Lucas Oil Pro Motocross Championship, AMSOIL Grand National Cross Country Championship, Rocky Mountain ATV/MC AMA Amateur Motocross Nationals at Loretta Lynn's, and the Wiseco ATV Motocross Championship. The world's most respected motocross and Supercross media company, Racer X Illustrated, also shares the Morgantown office.

Celebrating its 41st year, the Red Bull High Point National will give fans the annual opportunity to see the world's fastest riders battle for their chance at the coveted High Point National podium to celebrate and shower the country's best motocross fans with champagne at the end of what will be an epic day of racing. Not only does the tradition of High Point involve motocross, it also brings top brands of the action sports community to the Morgantown area. This year, you can be sure to check out an exciting Sponsor Village with the World of Red Bull and many other family friendly activities.

This Saturday's Red Bull High Point National will mark Round 4 of the Lucas Oil Pro Motocross Championship. Televised live on NBC as well as MAVTV, NBC Sports Network and Live Stream on the NBC Sports GOLD app so don't miss your chance to be a part of the tradition and excitement that millions around the world will be watching!
