Career Opportunities

A decade ago, career in law predominantly meant litigation. The typical career path was to start as an assistant to senior lawyer, spend long years to establish one-self and eventually get the first independent case after uncertain duration. Post liberalization, business activity increased in Indian firms. As a result, multiple career options emerged for a law professionals. Today, a law graduate has plethora of options to choose from. The most common career paths are illustrated below:

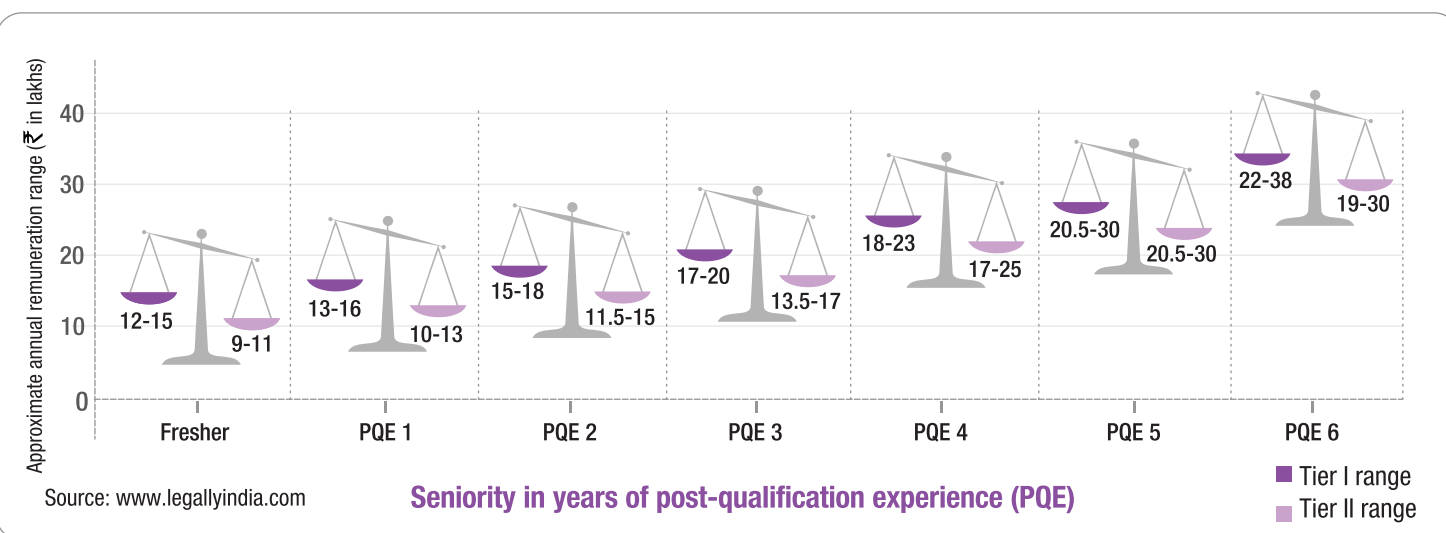

Highly paid jobs

A spurt in mergers and acquisitions, fund raising activities and large-scale investments, in the recent past, led to a business growth for corporate law firms. Most law firms knew that young and bright associates are the lifeblood of every legal practice, and realized that a fat pay packet is the key to attract & retain talent in this sector.

TOP PAYMASTERS

Some tier I legal firms:
 Amarchand Mangaldas, AZB and partners, J Sagar Associates, Khaitan and Co., Luthra and Luthra, S&R Associates, Trilegal

Some tier II legal firms:
 Argus, Desai and Diwanji, Nishith Desai Associates, Wadia Ghandy

» No. of CLAT takers has grown 4 times over the past 10 years

Growing demand for law professionals is evident in the rise in number of registrations for CLAT, the entrance exam for distinguished NLUs. CLAT taker count has grown at around 15% every year for past 10 years

» How to become a lawyer?

After Class XII (5 year integrated LL.B)

National Law Schools and many other law schools / colleges affiliated to traditional universities offer 5-year integrated degree course in B.A./B.Com/B.Sc LLB. Most Law Schools require 10+2 or equivalent, with at least 45% marks.

After Graduation (3 year LL.B)

Students can also pursue LL.B program after graduation. This program is of 3 year duration. Colleges affiliated to traditional universities offer 3 year LL.B. The admission criteria for such programs are institute specific. IMS trains students for MAH Law CET.

What to choose from B.A./B.com./B.B.A. L.L.B?

One of the most frequently asked questions about law programs is the choice of specialization. The programs differ only in the first degree certificates. It is generally recommended that students who studied Arts in class XII should opt for B.A.; L.L.B and those who studied commerce / science should opt for B.B.A L.L.B. As a part of the selection process, CLAT authorities publish a single merit list for all courses on the basis of CLAT score. Individual NLUs allot particular program to students on the basis of candidate's profile and entrance score, during admission process. Institutes like Symbiosis school of law, on the other hand publish separate merit lists for B.A. L.L.B. (Hons.) and B.B.A. L.L.B. (Hons.) programs.

Law professionals get exciting career opportunities with either specialization, in Corporate, Lawyering, Civil Services, Advocacy, Judiciary, Academic, jobs in International Organizations. While choosing a law school, it is advisable to go for a better brand name rather than specialization being offered.
